SUMMARY

I am a 22 year old with prospects and ambitions to become a programmer. I have over 1 year of experience as a Full-Stack Web Developer. In my previous work experience, I have proven my skills and ability to learn new things quickly.

I like working with a team, I am capable, goal-oriented, disciplined and I like to solve problems.
At school, I excelled with my analytical mindset, eye for detail. My strengths were mathematics and English.

I enjoy volleyball, in my free time I create various websites or program in Java, I learn programming or web development and try to expand and improve my knowledge. I see myself most as a Web Developer.
